■ Case Study

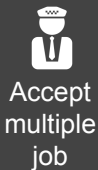

The foundation of successful operations

Journey of a freight transportation startup looking to become a leader in the industry using TaxiMobility

Objectives

The key specification was to customize the suite of mobile applications and dispatch system to accommodate the requirements of a road haulage business

Solutions

Catering to their specific requirements, we provided an intelligent solution built with custom modules that would expedite their delivery operations.

Apart from this, the suite of applications were equipped with advanced features.

Results

Being one of the very few freight transportation companies, TaxiMobility helped them to broaden their horizon. Within a year, the company saw a 125% increase in their operations and revenue.

■ Case Study

Extensive insight into a US-based taxi service provider

Results

TaxiMobility helped the taxi service provider set a clear distinction between its adversaries by providing its customers and drivers with a set of tools that improved efficiency and overall experience. By deploying both the app and web taxi booking feature, the taxi business was able to tap into a larger audience. Also, with automated reports, the company now had a clear image of the expenditure and earnings.

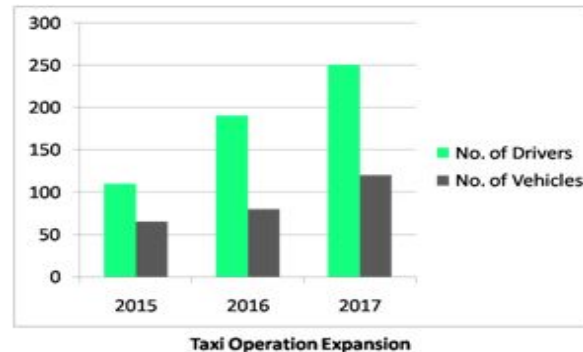

Objectives

The taxi service wanted to graduate from their existing taxi app by adopting a one-of-a-kind application equipped with advanced features.

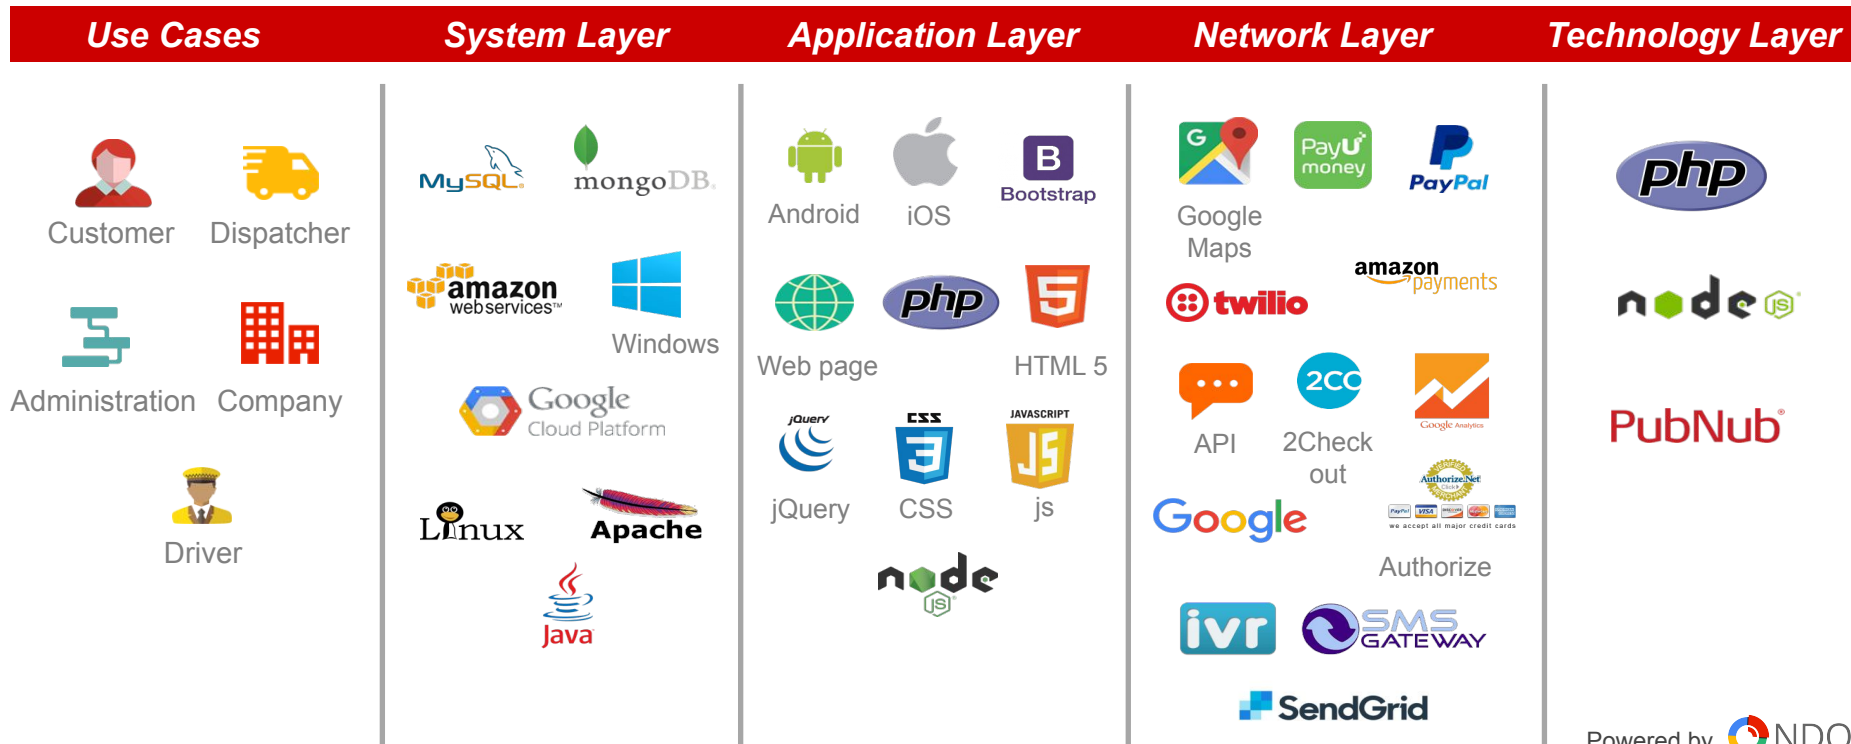

Solutions

A custom module was built to accommodate a taxi stand model using geofencing. Also, the driver app was equipped with third party integrations, including:

- Credit card processing
- Automated driver earning reports
- Centrodyne taxi meter
